Selective Service News

From: Jones: County

Only three negroes have been inducted from Jones County to date. Call number thirteen for this Local Board was a blank call, and no negro selectees will be sent.

Colored selectees from Jones Co. now in training include Howard Hunter and Theodore Lee, volunteers, and Clarence Adams.

Eighty-two white selectees have been inducted from Jones County.

GENERAL NEWS

General J. Watt Page, State Selective Service Director, announced today that 600 negro registrants will be inducted into the armed forces on May 19 and 20.

This is the Army's thirteenth call on Texas to supply men for military training.

Negroes are inducted in proportion to their percentage of the total population and assigned at the reception centers to every branch of the Army.

Pointing out that induction of Negro selectees throughout the Nation has been lagging due to lack of present facilities, General Page said that when this call has been completed, Texas will have furnished 3,726 Negroes as against 21,585 white trainees.

At the present time Texas has furnished approximately 75 per cent of its quota for the current year ending June 30. Whether June calls will bring the State up to its full quota of 33,213 men for the period is not known. A new quota will be assigned to Texas for the year beginning July 1. It is possible that this quota may be heavier than that for the first year, and rather steady calls after June 1st during the summer period are expected.

Six Draftees Left

Anson Monday, 6th

Six draftees left Anson by bus, Monday, May 6th for the recruiting station, Dallas, to fill Jones County's call number twelve. The list included William Haskell Abbott, volunteer, Hamlin; and Thomas Paul Huff Anson; Luther Preston Butler, Avoca; Dois Elmer Carter, Rt. 3, Anson; registrants who volunteered; John Randolph Reynolds, Hamlin, and Oscar Bob Kainer, Stamford.

Call number fourteen has been received by the Local Board, and will be for five white men to be sent to the recruiting station, Fort Bliss, May 23. The thirteenth call, for colored registrants, was a blank call for this county, and no selectees will be sent.

O. D. Conner, soldier man of the old type, from Camp Wolters, came up Thursday of last week with his family. O. D. is rated as Private, first class, Specialist 3rd Class. He is in the Detached Enlisted Men's List. He has had nearly 8 years in the army. They returned Monday.

Miss Wilma Reynolds is on an extended visit with her sister, Miss Louise in Austin. She has been there two weeks.

Miss Joyce Hudson

Represents District

In Speaking Contest

The Home-Town speaking contest plans were changed as formerly planned and moved up to make it possible for the various town choices to participate in a District Try-Out on Monday of this week.

The ten counties in District 5, headed by Tate May as director, held the contests in Abilene, Monday afternoon.

The towns of Abilene, Sweetwater Snyder, Breckenridge, Eastland, Ranger and Hamlin were represented. Other towns would have had speakers present, but perhaps the move-up of the plans prevented. Also the fact that so many contestant boys and girls are seniors, and at this time so many events connected with the schools prevented.

Hamlin's representative, Miss Joyce Hudson, a senior, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Hudson, won in the district and will participate in the West Texas Chamber of Commerce "My Home-Town" speaking at Mineral Wells. Her subject is said to be a fine one and carries current sentiments that appeal to people at this time. She gets a $10 cash award from the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, and the Hamlin Chamber of Commerce pays all expenses at the convention. Should she win at Mineral Wells, other valuable and important recognition will be received by her.

Jones County Scouts

To Meet In Hamlin

For Annual Camporee

Between 150 and 200 Boy Scouts from Jones County will pitch camp Friday, May 9, in the Hamlin City Park for their annual Camporee. Mr. W. T. Seibert, activities chairman for Jones County, will be in charge. After camp is made and supper has been cooked and eaten, the Scouts will enjoy softball, capture the flag and other twilight games. At 8:30 P. M. Mr. Fred Pauling, Scoutmaster of Troup 40 of Stamford, will be in charge of the campfire ceremonies.

Early Saturday morning, Scouts will begin a vigorous program of Scouting contests showing their skill in doing various things, such as fire building, signalling, first aid, knot tying, and many other achievements. Several Hamlin men together with men from Anson and Stamford, will judge and referee the various contests.

Some time during the morning the Scouts and leaders will parade the streets of Hamlin displaying their patrol flags and other Scout regalia. It is hoped that the band of one of the towns represented will lead the parade.

Scouts will complete their contest events during the afternoon and everyone is expected to break camp before 6:00 Saturday.

The purpose of the Camporee is to promote skill and ability in doing the various tests that Scouts are expected to do.

Mr. Goodson Sellers is in charge of arrangements, etc., for the Camporee.

Misses Frances Ruth and Dorothy Jane Bailey of Denton were up the past week end to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bailey. They were accompanied by Miss Sharron Magness of Denton. Miss Frances Ruth Bailey has been working in the Denton Clinic the past six years, and this past Tuesday she began as a nurse in the Army Service in Camp Barkeley.

Miss Edwina Gilbert and pupils from her piano classes went to Stephenville Thursday to take part in the Piano Ensemble Concert in John Tarleton College Auditorium Thursday night. Pupils accompanying Miss Gilbert were Mrs. Henry Albritton, Mrs. Jack Russell, La Nelle Carlton, Joan Culbertson, Jimmy Clements and Buford Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Brundage and Mrs. M. Y. Wilson returned on Monday from Denton where they attended the Bach Festival presented by N. T. S. T. C. Mr. and Mrs. Brundage's daughter, Miss Maxine, and Mrs. Wilson's son, Stanley, both took part in the Festival.

Dr. and Mrs. Joe McCrary and daughters, Jo Anne and Sue returned Monday from Long Beach, Calif., where they spent a month for Dr. McCrary's health. He is reported to be much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Anderson and Mrs. Gillespie attended the Bach Festival presented by the students of N. T. S. T. C. in Denton May 2-3 and 4. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson's daughter, Miss Anita, was one of the singers in the Oratorio chorus.

S. D. McMahon, who has been recovering from a major operation at his home on Union Avenue, came down town a few times lately. Mr. and Mrs. McMahon went back to Dallas Wednesday for a check-up in the hospital.

J. B. Bowman, who has been in ill health for several weeks, was able to come back to his place of business last Saturday. He is going to be himself again if he keeps on improving.

Neinda Farmers Co-op

Gin Having Barbecue

They are having a big time at the Neinda School campus at noon today Friday, May 9.

The Directors and the Manager, Mr. F. W. Poe, are giving their friends and customers a treat in the way of barbecue, beans, potatoes, pies and cakes, at the school building. Several hundred invitations have been sent out and yet there are some who may have been overlooked. So in that case, Mr. Poe says, "Come on, the sun is shining, let's eat and have a good time." That sounds like good old-time hospitality. It also sounds like they are going to have plenty to eat—and if they don't, it will be the first time Neinda folks ever fell short on eats.

So if you failed to get an invitation card, go on anyway—"Begory!" There will be about "umpteenth hundred" there.

Many Responded

Last week the Herald started a new system of letting subscribers know that we would be pleased to have them renew their subscriptions. The method met with wonderful response. We thank you.

The Herald is low in cost, only about 2 cents per week. But we do not enter a shorter period than six months. It is strictly "community" and everyone in this community should take the Herald.

To keep our list up in a business way, once each month, hereafter, we shall indicate a reminder if your time paid up has passed.

Now, we are not taking any names out this week. Maybe weather or something has prevented some from coming or sending in their renewal. To all of you, we thank you.

$50 REWARD

There is a hundred dollar reward out for "Old Bill."

It's the old electric bill that is "wanted," according to Mac Brundage, local manager of the West Texas Utilities, who announced the reward.

Fifty dollars, he said, will be paid for the oldest bill sent in by any customer of the company on or before June 15, and five dollars each for the next 10 oldest. To be eligible for the reward, he explained, all entries must be dated at least 15 years ago, must be for service in the home, and must be accompanied by a 100-word-or-less letter telling something about the lights and appliances used and the cost at the time the bill was paid. "All present customers are eligible, except employees," Mr. Brundage said. "The old bill may be for service received from the West Texas Utilities or a predecessor in this company."

Purpose of the "reward", he added, is to compare present-day improved service and lower cost with the "good old days" when oil lamps were first being displaced by better light.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Dodson and little daughter, Barbara Jean, left Thursday for Burk Burnett, where Mrs. Dodson and baby will remain for Mother's Day. Mr. Dodson went to Iowa Park to attend the funeral of Editor C. C. Hudson, of the Iowa Park Herald. Mr. Dodson worked for Mr. Hudson for thirteen years. Editor Hudson had been in ill health for more than a year.

Rev. J. E. Harrell, pastor of the Methodist Church, was called to Loraine Wednesday afternoon to assist in the funerals of two former members of his church while pastor at Loraine. Dave L. Bollinger and daughter, Zora, age 23, were killed by a train Tuesday. Mrs. Harrell accompanied Rev. Harrell.

J. R. Reynolds, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Reynolds, left Monday morning for military training.

When Hamlin's New Water Supply Lake reaches its capacity and the excess water goes on its way, then it is appropriate to say "The New Lake is full and going THROUGH." It will never go "A-round" and don't say "going over".

Hamlin's New Lake, in less than one full year went "through" on Friday, May 2, 1941, about 3:00 P. M. It was a wonderful sight when water again started down Dry California Creek.

Much rain has fallen since the big dam was finished, but not till last Friday did any get away or through the normal capacity outlets.

You see the dam is constructed so that the water begins to go through three 7 foot square concrete ducts. First, there is a fall of about 25 feet and then three concrete tunnels 200 feet long, through which the water goes, lead on into the creek.

Before the water can ever go "around" or over the dam, it has to rise about four feet above the three outlets, and by that time the acreage is so great that a regular Noah's flood would have to come before that much water could accumulate. So, Brother, don't worry, not in our time will such a thing happen. The run-around emergency is there, and well and good, but it will never be needed.

Another thing: It is clear NOW that the Neinda road will not be under water long at a time and maybe not at all. No, Neinda will not be under water either even if the lake should pile up and run around. The engineer's level is hard to fool.

The lakes are all full. The Fish Lakes are attracting many folks who like to fish, and reports are that the fish are not biting. That is because maybe of the overflowing and disturbances.

The Sun is shining again, and farmers will be running their machines day and night as soon as fields dry up a bit. It is now mid-planting time. Not much stuff is up yet; no cotton. Wheat is booming. It may have rust, yet, but if it does not, a bumper crop will be made on the small acreage now growing.

April ended and ushered in May, wetter than any spring season in this country in many years. Don't say, "I never saw so much rain," for one is likely to forget about weather. West Texas is a half-desert, and once in a great while, the overflow comes and the whole landscape blossoms like an oasis.

Don't say, "The New Lake is running over"; say "Through."

What Other Towns

Are Trying To Do

All newspapers in a given locality, generally, exchange papers with each other, and it is by that means we learn what other towns are trying to do.

OVER IN ABILENE,

WAR ON MOSQUITOES

"Initial step in the annual mosquito war was taken by the city commission Friday when it authorized employment of a man with pick-up truck to spray mosquito breeding places.

"Commissioner Grover Nelson reported that the Business and Professional Women's club, which has assisted two years, stands ready to co-operate again, and favored an early start this year.

"A limit of $4 per day for the man and truck was set, but the city will furnish gasoline and oil."

So that's a good hint for Hamlin.

Up to this time cool weather, repeating rains and running water has not provided a chance for mosquito hatching, but their time is right here now.

Mosquitoes are like the Germans, let 'em invade our country and all your money and efforts will avail nothing. Take a hint.

H. O. Cassle spent Wednesday and Thursday in an Abilene Clinic for a check-up and examination.

What Hamlin High Has Done For Us

By Odean Murphree

The Senior class of 1941 owes a debt of deep gratitude to Hamlin High School for the guidance, opportunities, privileges, knowledge, and happy memories which this institution has given to us. Our appreciation can be expressed not only in words but in our actions, and the way we spend our future will prove our gratitude.

What Hamlin High has done for us cannot be measured, for it is too great. The true fellowship we have known during our high school days is a memory which each member of this graduating class shall always cherish. The good citizenship practiced here and the orderly manner in which we have done our work have prepared each of us to be able to live with others and to engage in the occupation for which we have prepared. No other organization could have helped us in this particular way just as Hamlin High has done.

To those who have made our school days happy—the faculty, our parents, as well as all of our friends—we Seniors are grateful because you are the ones who have made it possible for us to enjoy the happiness to be found in Hamlin High School. The education and training we have received here have helped to prepare us to live the remaining years of our lives well. We have been given an idea of what to expect in later years, and we have been taught the best ways to meet every disadvantage, opportunity and obligation, as well as the disappointments that are sure to be ours.

May we, as a graduating class, express our deepest thanks to Hamlin High School and its faculty for the spirit which has been invested in us. We shall be better men and women of tomorrow because of the influence of Hamlin High School today and the days that have passed.

After Graduation— What ? ?

By R. A. Dean

A student enters college, primarily, to get a better education and to become more erudite. He may enter with the aim of accomplishing something outstanding in sports, music, or speech; or he may enter with nothing in mind except getting better prepared to start on that treacherous road to success. But along with any ambition which a student may have, there should be an intensive desire to become a better citizen.

There is no other time in life when the opportunity presents itself so readily to one to become a better citizen than when one is in college. It is the duty of every man and woman born under "Old Glory" to be a good citizen, not only in later life when the privilege of voting is his, but in college as well. To sit idly by and let the priceless heritage slip from one's grasp is nothing short of sacrilege, and should be punishable as such. If one gains nothing else except the ability to recognize one's duty as a citizen of the United States, if one accomplished nothing but the realization of proper conduct which is becoming to a future voter, if one learns nothing but the value of that storehouse of bountiful opportunity left us by a courageous lineage; then one is amply repaid for his investment in time and money.

When we graduate this year, we

To Mr. Bowen Pope

The Seniors wish to express their appreciation to Mr. Bowen Pope for the publicity which he has given the school this year. The school page which he has made possible has helped to stimulate pep within our school and has helped to bring our school closer to our homes and our community. Both the students and the faculty appreciate Mr. Pope's co-operation.

shall be more or less upon our own. Some of us will go to college for higher education while others will not. Wherever we are, let us practice the ideals of good citizenship in our home, in our community, and in our country. A good citizen knows and obeys the laws of his country. He respects others as himself. If everyone were a good citizen, there would be no hate, no prejudice, nor war; everyone would live in peace and harmony with his fellow men, for he would obey the teachings of the Lord.

The task is ours. Let every Senior bear his part of the responsibility.

To The Seniors—

FROM THE FRESHMEN
(By Jack Harden)

The freshmen wish to pay tribute to the seniors. You have accepted us with courtesy and treated us with respect. You have left us a path to travel, something to look forward to; for many of you have won for the school honors and awards. Within a few days, you will leave Hamlin High prepared for a future you alone can shape into success. We wish for you a glorious future.

FROM THE SOPHOMORES
(By Ellis Benham)

The sophomores offer a tribute to the seniors. Your friendliness, your spirit of co-operation, and your willingness to work have been an example to us.

We wish for the class of 1941 success in everything you undertake.

FROM THE JUNIORS
(By Clara Spratlen)

To each member of the senior class the juniors extend heartiest congratulations. We know that mingled with your joy of graduation there is a feeling of regret at leaving what has been a part of you these last four years. We feel that also. We are glad you will graduate, but we hate to see you go.

You have been the example you should have been. You've set a goal that it will perhaps be difficult for us to attain. You've given us ideals to uphold. You have been all-around regular seniors!

Along with congratulations and thanks, we also extend best wishes for your success.

Seniors See Stalactites

Sixty-eight seniors are traveling 375 miles into our neighboring state of New Mexico to view the wonders of nature in the form of Carlsbad Caverns. Of course, the trip isn't entirely for the purpose of seeing this seventh wonder of the world, as it is for the seniors to live a time of their lives that they will never forget.

The group left the High school building Thursday, May 8, about 9 A. M., full of vim, vigor, and vitality. They arrived in Carlsbad about 4:30 with maybe just vigor and vitality; however, after a clean-up at the Rio-Vista Courts, their home while on this trip, the vim returned and all sixty-eight saw the sights of Carlsbad.

Today (Friday) they are 750 feet under the ground in the famous "hole" discovered by Jim White, the cowboy. The Forest Rangers will have a hard time convincing Carl and Glen D. that some fellow didn't carve the whole thing out with a pocket knife. The seniors expect to come out some time this afternoon about five—that is, if Miss Willis and Mr. Morton and the Rangers can keep them out of the bottomless pit and get them out of the green lake, where they will all have to go swimming whether it is permissible or not.

They will do the town again tonight, not quite so big as last night though, because the funds will be low by then.

Tomorrow (Saturday) they will start home about 9:00 A. M. — it depends on how long it takes to find all the towels, glasses, silver, etc. They are expected to arrive in Hamlin about 8:00 Saturday night—tired, but oh so happy! You can bet seniors are scarce in Sunday School Sunday morning!

Dorothy Wilemon Wins

At Homemakers Rally

"The Voice of American Youth", the general theme of the 22nd Future Homemakers of Texas Rally, was a most interesting theme. The Rally was held April 30 to May 3 in San Antonio, and was the largest meeting ever held with 467 Texas schools represented and 2,500 girls registered.

Each girl attending the rally represented her school either as a contestant or an F. H. T. delegate. Dorothy Wilemon, our local first year contestant, entered a striped chambray dress with a chambray hat to match, and was given the place of highly superior on her costume, which equals first, Joyce Hudson, our second year representative, won the mark superior on her contest on First Aid and Home Care of the Sick.

There were special sessions for the boys who were present and John Hill Jr., Kilgore, spoke to the entire group Friday on "Youth at the Crossroads." He said that so long as we are religiously what we should be, we could not go very far wrong. He was a most enthusiastic speaker and this year won in national debate. He urged the youth to realize that our country is worth defending and to be ready to do their part.

The last general session climaxed the successful Rally with installation of new F. H. T. officers; a style show of all winning dresses; and presentation of grand awards by Dr. L. A. Woods. The Rally ended by the group singing "Sing Your Way Home" led by our State Director of Music, Miss Nell Rarmley.

Many other important meetings, a luncheon for teachers, a lovely formal banquet with a Mexican program, and seeing the sights completed a most enjoyable trip.

Julia Pitcock, Joyce Hudson, Marguerite Nobles, Dorothy Wilemon, and their sponsor, Miss Camille Smyers, wish to thank each one who helped make the trip possible.

Tommy Hill Reaches

State Tennis Semi-finals

The University Interscholastic League of Texas holds its annual state meet in Austin each year in May. From the eight regions in Texas gather the winners in all Interscholastic League events, literary and athletic, to compete for state championships.

Hamlin was represented this year in the meet by Tom Wilson Hill, who won the county, district and regional championship in tennis singles. Hill's first match in Austin was with Vernon Griffen from Sherman, Texas. Hill won the match 10-8 and 7-5 to advance to the semi-finals where he met Richard Elliot, of Trinity, Texas.

Elliot had been picked by all the experts to win the meet and he justified their faith. He took Hill in the best single match of the meet, 6-4 and 6-2. He then defeated Jack Ulrich of San Antonio in the finals, 6-1, 8-6 and 6-0.

Had Tommy Hill been in the other bracket, he no doubt could have gone to the finals for he was easily the number two man of the meet.

Naturally he would like to have won a state championship; but there is no disappointment in our mind over the outcome. Hill made a fine showing for Hamlin and proved himself a fine sport and gentleman in defeat as well as in victory. May I say another word for the other boys he met, Griffen and Elliot were typically fine gentlemen and we consider it an honor to have met them.

Band Members

Carry On

John Henry Vaughan and Vera Pearl Fielder, the two band students who won first in solo work at the state contest, left Wednesday at 7:30 for Waco to enter their solos in the National contest. They were accompanied by Ellis Benham and Milton Fletcher. Their solos were played Thursday.

While at the contest the four students heard bands of class B and C. They were also privileged to hear many fine soloists.

Mr. Clyde Smith was very proud of his two fine pupils when they placed first at Abilene. Here's hoping he comes home today with that same smile and good news of first place in the National contest.

Joyce Hudson Wins

Speaking In District

Joyce Hudson won the right to represent Hamlin in the Home-Town Speaking contest at West Texas Chamber of Commerce Convention in Mineral Wells, Monday afternoon when she defeated Abilene, Sweetwater, Eastland, Breckenridge, Snyder and Ranger. The Abilene candidate Monday afternoon was chosen from 200 Abilene High students who competed in their preliminaries.

In the local contest held Monday morning at eight o'clock, Joyce Hudson won first place, Julia Pitcock, second place, and Herbie Faye Johnston third place. Other students competing in the local contest were Dorothy Fern Routh, Jack Ellison, Phala Davis, W. D. Bristow, Geraldine Elliott, Bernice Beard, Pauline Locke, Craigolene Elmore, Bobbie Tims, and Mary Nell Bell.

"My Home Town Is Typically American"

The following speech was delivered by Joyce Hudson who won in the District Home-Town Speaking Contest, at Abilene Monday.

"Most people think of a nation when they hear the word 'democracy'. We do live in a democratic nation, but have you ever thought that the nation itself does not make the real democracy? It is the small towns that are scattered over the plains, the mountains, and the desert that are the hub of democracy for this indivisible nation. The rest of America revolves around these small agricultural centers, which are the heart of our land of freedom, equality, and justice. Small towns, like Hamlin give life and strength to this great American Democracy.

"With the forces of greed and oppression rampant in the world today, the small towns of America are burdened with the heavy load of preserving our precious democracy. My home town is able to bear her part of this responsibility because of her undying faith in the principles which our forefathers so carefully planted and instilled in our hearts. It is this faith that makes Hamlin what it is—the typical American town. This faith is democracy in its best form, for great men like Washington had faith in constitutional representative democracy. We have faith in the unity of our people, we have faith in our industry, and we have faith in Hamlin's ability to emerge from this critical period.

"Democracy is seen in the congenial inhabitants of my home town. Their unity and co-operation have proved its presence. Socially and spiritually these fine people accomplish many worth-while things. The business men work in close harmony and protect each other's rights. Every citizen has the interest of the town at heart and co-operates with his fellow men in providing the necessities and comforts for all inhabitants. The citizens of Hamlin have faith in each other just as our pioneer fathers had, for we have not forgotten that for which our forefathers strived. We, too, shall work, for Hamlin is only in the adolescent stage.

"Every factor of Hamlin's civic development has been carefully considered. Through the Chamber of Commerce, we seek to make our town that which few have ever achieved—a town that can truly merit the title of the typical American town. We know that it is not impossible, for we have every advantage for which we could possibly hope. Some of these advantages are found in the natural resources which make Hamlin a great industrial center. The rich farm lands that surround my town yield a surplus that has no equal. The flowing gold that is deposited near by gives new vitality to our plans. The rolling prairie provides ample room for fine herds of cattle.

"In these industries is a definite beauty that adds to the enjoyment of life in Hamlin. The miles and miles of fertile soil covered with a carpet of green wheat in the springtime are so intensely beautiful that they would stimulate any soul. In the fall, cotton fields are a mass of white that seem to symbolize the serenity and purity of the life about it. At all times of the year, Hamlin is one of the most picturesque towns in West Texas.

"We speak with pride of our natural resources, but our human resources surpass all material things. To make our lives and our industries run smoothly and profitably, we live as one large family in close friendly unity. There is a friendship of instant readiness running over with an intensity of faith, a friendship that has stood like a wave-beaten rock, as steadfast as the soul of truth. We are an average people, but we are a definitely different people, for we give our utmost to the welfare of our own home town and receive the greatest blessing of all—the magic of youth and the joy of living. These intangible resources, that cannot be measured in figures or in terms of dollars and cents, are of still greater importance than all other assets combined.

"Small though it is, Hamlin is a solid, substantial town, democratic in spirit, rich in friendship, and full of the vigor of the West. My home town opens the door to innumerable opportunities, for Hamlin offers to everyone the real way of life—the American way."

Meditations of a Senior

(By R. A. Dean)

Ah, but the meadows are sparkling
With dew this morning;
And the wild birds are rushing to and fro,
Singing their cheerful, beautiful songs
Of the early morn.

But my head droops and my heart
Is heavy with grief and sorrow
Over the loss of my pals and friends
After eleven long but happy years.

I see the birds fluttering happily about
And I wonder if I'll ever be happy again.

Looking to the devil and his kind,
I sink low and lower because
There's nothing but hopelessness,
Emptiness, and destruction within.

But looking to God for the finer,
Cleaner, brighter things,
I begin to rise from the depths of despair

Then I am happy because God has meant my life to be so.

"Toast to the Seniors"

(By Mollie Jo Jones)

To the Seniors of '41
And the Seniors yet to come,
The greatest accomplishment a class can make is
For the School Board to say,
"Well done."

You don't have to be unusually smart
To accomplish such a rule,
Just be plain honest, grateful, and loyal
To yourself, your classmates, and your school.

Just Imagine—

Glen Adkins not picking an argument.
Clem Ball not having girl trouble.
Sarah Jo Holder without an engagement ring.
Pauline Smith without a soldier.
Aaron Mallonee without Geneva Huling.
J. C. Bledsoe without a wise-crack.
Elmer Feagan falling out of love.
Bernice Beard being in the U. S. Navy.
Harold Fletcher not playing a Glen Miller record.
Doris Gray not swinging down the aisles.
Bryan Phenix with a Charlie McCarthy.
John Henry Vaughan without Joan C.
D. C. Reynolds a Romeo.
W. T. Malone giving anybody any trouble.
Tommy Hill not breaking girls' hearts.
Alvin Johnson without a football.
Mr. Grigg being funny for a change.
Glen Winslett ever graduating!

Did You Know That—

Alvin Johnson, all district half-back, scored 17 touchdowns this year?
Tommy Hill won regional in tennis and went to state?
There isn't a senior boy going steady with a senior girl?
Two senior girls have gotten married this year?
Glen D. Adkins' song is "Georgia on My Mind"?
Marguerite Nobles' nickname is "Maggie"? She also gives advice on love affairs.
There are 40 senior boys and only 38 senior girls?

Bernice Beard's boy friend joined the navy?

Charlotte Dillingham thinks uniforms are really neat looking?

J. C. Bledsoe answered a question in English and answered it right?

Loy Fry, Jr., has a pair of band coveralls? Has anyone seen them?

Carl Barton is too lazy to go fishing?

Marie Holland is superstitious of black cats?

Mr. Grigg calls Bryan Phenix — "Grand Pa"?

Announcements We

: Never Hear

It is the desire of the faculty that all pupils chew gum. Please abide by this rule and co-operate in the art of chewing gum.

All who are hungry may leave at the beginning of the fourth period.

To the interest of all the pupils, and especially those honoring the study hall teacher, it is your privilege to throw erasers and chalk, a game everyone likes.

Anyone wishing to "skip" assembly may do so.

It is the extreme pleasure of the Home Economics department to serve everyone who smells the appetizing odors throughout the building. (It would have to be onions).

Miss Whiteley, your English teacher, has taken the liberty of declaring that there will be no more term themes.

Assembly will be the sixth period for the purpose of hearing the famous "All Request Hour."

We, the faculty members, realizing that pupils are only human, grant the privilege to those who are craving an afternoon "snooze". The inviting lawns are yours.

Red Cross Seeks 1,000 U. S. Doctors To Aid Britain on Far-flung Front

Above, Britain's long lines of defense, crosses marking points where American doctors will serve. Right, a Royal Army Medical Corps physician, treating an emergency case, wears the uniform which American doctors may choose to wear in serving Britain.

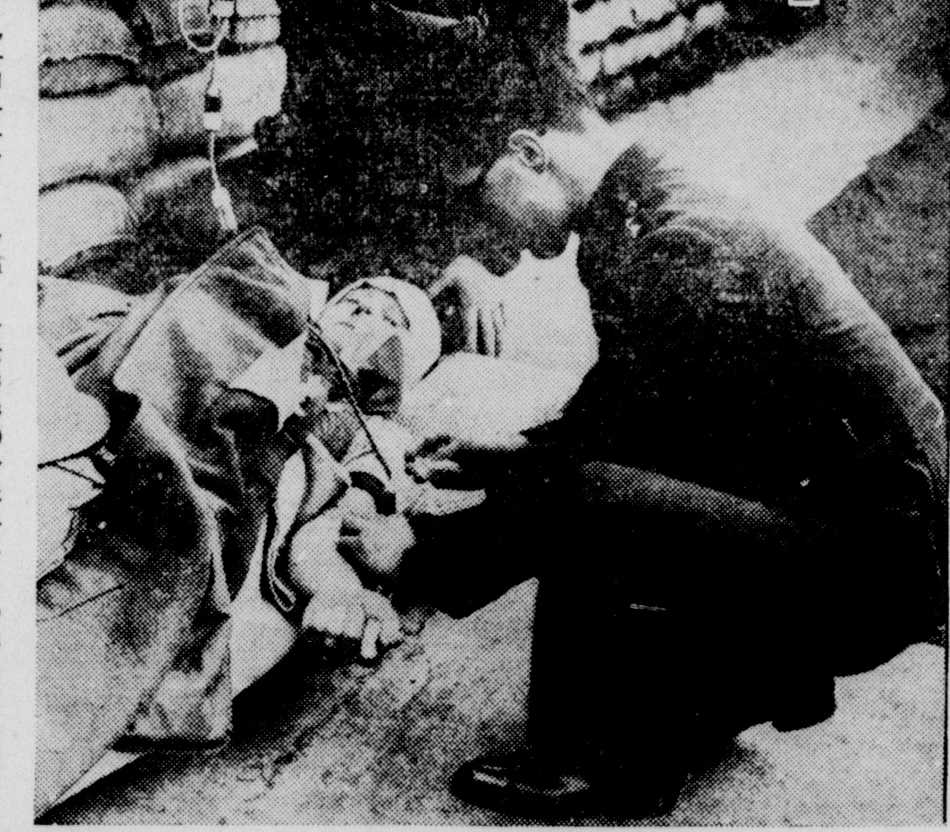

Washington, D. C.—Out of the agony of bomb-ravaged Britain has come an appeal for American doctors.

Britain's request is being met. Already the American Red Cross, acting for her sister society in England, has carried the appeal to the nation's medical profession. Up to 1,000 American doctors will be needed by the British Red Cross to supplement the hard-pressed corps of doctors engaged in saving British lives from London to Singapore.

American Red Cross workers who have been in England since the outset of hostilities report the need is acute. Formerly a nation at war needed doctors to treat the sick and wounded on the battle front. Today, with aerial bombardment of civilians, Britain finds her doctors fighting against desperate odds.

American doctors will report to the British Red Cross where they will be allowed to choose service either in the Royal Army Medical Corps or in the civilian Emergency Medical Service, the valiant corps of physicians assigned to home defense.

Their service will be for one year, but if at the end of that period they wish to continue, they will be eligible to promotion. To be eligible for service with the RAMC, doctors must be 40 or younger, while the EMS will accept men up to 45.

Despite the cruel aspects of all-out hostilities, American physicians answering Britain's appeal will be protected by the Red Cross Treaty of Geneva, a 77-year-old international agreement still in force on the battlefields.

American doctors, as far as possible, will be allowed to choose where they will serve—whether it be in London, Rangoon, the Middle East or any point of emergency along the far-stretched lines of British defense.

The appeal of the British Red Cross has the endorsement of the President of the United States, the Secretary of War and the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service. Those doctors subject to military training under our own flag are being given special consideration by the Selective Service.

AND A LITTLE BIT OF

HOW DO THE GERMANS DO IT?

From before the beginning of open warfare between Hitlerism, or the New German idea, and the British Empire, there appeared a chain of circumstances that played into the schemes of the Germans.

In the diplomatic field Germany got the upper hand over the English and French, by a system of spying, prying and promising.

In trade agreements, Germany edged out her neighbors and made other peoples believe their best deal would be with Germany.

On the field of battle, it seems that Germany has always had the advantage in every detail, and most of all, being there first with more than enough to hold the ground.

Germany has played the part of holding up sarcasm, ridicule, and magnifying failures in the things democracies stand for.

Germany has assumed a "mistreated" attitude and has patted other peoples on the back and told them the English-speaking peoples and even Christianity has beat them out of the best things of life. This last scheme is perhaps the most deadly tactics in the world. If you want a fellow or a people to fall all over themselves for a cockeyed idea, it is to let them begin feeling the sympathy of deceit that sounds like somebody is going to give them a little bit of heaven here on earth for nothing.

The latest scheme is to get the religions of the world on the war-path against one another. That is what is taking place down in the ancient valleys of the Euphrates and Tigris Rivers. Iraq is a Mohammedan country and Mohammed taught a religion that when a believer falls in battle fighting a holy war, the fallen will inherit a place in Mohammed's heaven. So the "revolution" is not only against the English peoples of the world, but it also includes their religion. This idea has been taught the younger generation in Germany and there lies the world's greatest danger to the English-speaking people and Christianity.

If England and the United States, their democracy and their freedom and belief in Christianity is to survive, both nations and all their citizenship must pull together to prove that what they are and what they stand for is no mere myth but something worth dying for.

This 1941 seems to be a critical year in the history of civilization. How any far-thinking adult can be an "appeaser" and pussy-footer, or a doubter is beyond our way of seeing and thinking. But if there is anything wrong with Democracy, it is the freedom allowed for its citizens to jabber, debate, quarrel, block and blunder while their interests suffer at the hands of those who would destroy the nation.

Let us once and for all get it into our minds that the Germans are NOT super-men, super-human, or so strong in their inhuman methods, that they can beguile and becloud the rest of the world to do their deceitful work, and crush a race of 200,000 million people along with their religion of Jesus Christ, the true God.

HOW WILL THE WAR

FINALLY END?

That is a question now being asked urgently by many American people, and certainly by the leaders of every nation.

How will it end? Let us suggest the way we see the situation. The final world struggle, according to the way we see it is about this way: The United States will furnish the answer. It will become a naval-air war in which the United States and England will work hand in hand. The first job will be to clear the oceans, and the larger seas of the entire world, of enemy craft, both on water and in the air.

The second phase will be closing in on vulnerable enemy sea bases and ports with naval and air bombardment till every port is reduced to uselessness.

If there be a third phase, it will be then the invasion of interior points of supply by an ever increasing air force till the enemy countries are threatened by hunger and revolution.

By this time nations that have been overrun will be daring enough if not too hungry, to make it possible for an invading army, which should meet with little opposition.

Finally order will be restored by nation after nation turning to the United States for leadership and protection.

With the United States leading out with the greatest navy and air force in the world, plus its unlimited resources and money, plus its unselfishness and tolerance and Christian Spirit, fifty or more nations will throw their resources and what they have left, to the United States as a kind of peace guardian.

Germany, Italy, and Japan will be disarmed, and left to reconstruct themselves in the family of nations. As for Russia, she will not figure in the picture, because of her interior realm and lack of sea power. She will be harmless within ten years after world peace is restored. Call this "prophecy" if you want to.

A NEW SENATOR

MUST BE SELECTED

Along with war talk it becomes necessary that Texas select a new Senator on June 28th.

The field now looks about settled as to the "would-be's".

Every citizen should be interested. There are several men who would make good senators. Let's see who and why they should.

First, there is Congressman Dies, an able man, a man who has done many good things for Texas and his nation. We would hate to see him, turned down. But wonder if he is not already serving just where he can do the most for Texas and America? To NOT change him would be no reflection upon him.

Second, there is Attorney General Gerald Mann, who would make a good Senator, but he, like Mr. Dies, is already making Texas a great official and since he is quite young, he has a wide long field ahead of him. If he should not be chosen, he still serves in a vital job.

Third, there is Congressman Lyndon Johnson, an able young man, who knows much about state and governmental affairs; a young fellow who talks like he knows what to do and has grit enough to do it. Yes, he has an important position already. But he is not in such an important place, but that his usefulness can not still be broadened by moving him into the Senate chamber from the House. O yes, his place would have to be filled by a vote of his district. That would be easy and safe.

Mr. Dies is a good man now in the right place.

Mr. Mann's place would be filled by appointment, and anyone might guess about that uncertainty.

Listen, read and look. The vote is going to be scattered.

O wait! There is a new horse on the track. His name is Hal Collins, the Medicine Man, famous over the radio, and otherwise. Mr. Collins is truly a dark horse, he nudged out W. Lee O., after all, and where he gets to in the race is anybody's guess.

There are others but the race now looks like the bulk of the vote will land on four names. It is a free-for-all. The one a hair of the nose ahead when the vote is counted will be IT.

Vegetable Laxative With Proved Feature

The punctual, satisfying relief from constipation and its headaches, biliousness, bad breath, so often experienced by users of this laxative, is mainly due to its combination of purely vegetable ingredients.

BLACK-DRAUGHT'S principal ingredient has high medical recognition as an "intestinal tonic-laxative"; helps impart tone to lazy bowel muscles.

A little of this spicy, aromatic product by simple directions at bedtime, generally allows time for a good night's rest; acts gently and thoroughly next morning.

Next time, take time-tested, economical BLACK-DRAUGHT.

Mrs. E. W. Bounds, of Ft. Worth, came this week for a month's visit with her daughter, Mrs. S. C. Ferguson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ivey and granddaughter, Miss Opal Parker went to Fort Sam Houston Saturday to visit their son, Chester Ivey and grandson, Milton Vanderford, who are in the 9th Inf., Co. D and K. They had a good visit.

Pipers Go Snooping

Your snooper has looked in the files and taken funny skits from early lives of finishing "Pipers" who started in Hamlin School.

Charlotte Faye Dillingham has always been a problem child. Why! In the first grade she got a whipping for talking.

Loy "Dimples" Fry was the gentleman who told on Miss Dillingham. He's just always doing the wrong things.

La Verne Johnson although outwardly appears bashful, confessed that she was so bad in school she got two whippings in the first grade.

Murle Carton got her feelings all trampled 'cause the teacher just didn't understand she knocked that little boy down accidentally.

Elmer Feagan was so mean the teacher had to tie him to the desk, and one day she actually forgot him during the noon hour. Poor, Elmer!

Robert "Once a hair-brain always a hair-brain" Gardner was so "bright" he couldn't spell his name. He was whipped because he couldn't copy it from the board ten times correctly.

Bryan Phenix has certainly changed. Why! The first grade teacher whipped him twice in 15 minutes "just" for fighting. What a man!

Geneva Huling adores school now, but in the first grade it was certainly a problem to make her stay at school. A whipping did it!

Johnnie Vaughan's ambition once was to be a boxer. A first grade whipping changed his mind. It took a lot of courage for "Little John" to tell his mama. He found that courage in his sophomore year.

Harold Fletcher, not so tall and lanky then but just as dignified, had his dignity upset by some "Mean old" high school boy. Do you know they actually jerked his elastic topped pants off of him? Hmm such goings on!

Ethel Bell Neal was a "cute" kid but her weakness was to stand on top of desks. A substitute teacher didn't appreciate Ethel Bell's humor, so poor Ethel got spanked.

Dorothy Fern Routh was quite as bashful in the first grade as she is now 'cause Donald Cherry was her "Bo" and ya know one day Donald ran up and kissed Dot! So there now, too.

Wanda Bowen, a quiet girl, one day was peacefully chewing her gum, but all went wrong, and the next thing Wanda knew she was standing in the corner with the gum on her nose.

Florene Smith had the same thing happen to her only she had to stand in front of the class.

Sara Jo Holder vowed she'd never "tattle" again because once Edwin Tinsely scared her to death by threatening to "chop off her head." Them's mighty words to such a little girl!

Clay Bailey got most embarrassed when he had to stand in the corner for talking. He just declares he was

$100.00 REWARD

$50.00 for OLDEST Electric Bill

$5 Each for the 10 Next Oldest

(All entries must be fifteen or more years old)

Nothing to Buy!

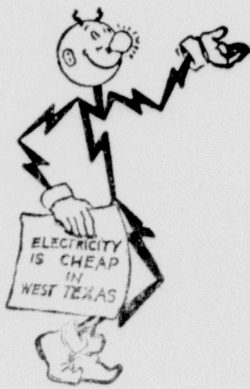

Just Send or Bring Us Your Old Bill — and 100-Word-or-less Letter Describing Electric Service at Time Bill was Paid

MAYBE you still have the first electric bill you ever paid! If so, you will recall that the service wasn't so good compared to present-day standards of efficiency and dependability.

If yours is the oldest we receive, it is worth $50 to you. If it is one of the ten next oldest, we will pay you $5 for it. It must be for service in the home, dated 15 or more years ago, and must be accompanied by a letter, 100 words or less, telling something about the kind of service and the cost for the appliances and light you used at the time the bill was paid.

We will do our best to return your entry if it isn't one of the eleven oldest bills. We reserve the right to publish photographic copy of winning bills and letters and names of winners.

Why Do We Want Old Bills?

So we can compare today's improved service and lower cost with yesteryear's! We want to figure what the kilowatt-hours used at present-day low rates would have cost in the "good old days" when oil lamps were first being displaced by BETTER LIGHT.

We all know that not so many years ago electricity was on only part of each day and night; and that interruptions in small isolated oil engine plants were at times frequent. We all know, too, that the transmission line type of electricity has resulted in greatly lowered cost and improved service so that people today are using two or three, or even five times, as much for about the same or less money.

Look Through Your Old Receipts Today

This offer is good until June 15. But don't put it off—dig up that old bill today. If yours is one of the oldest eleven we receive, payment will be made as soon after June 15 as possible.

All PRESENT customers of the West Texas Utilities (excepting employees) are eligible. The old bill may be for service rendered from a predecessor of the company in this community; that is, for any bill paid before the coming of West Texas Utilities cheap and dependable electric service.

Mail or Deliver in Person Your Entry to Our Local Office

West Texas Utilities Company

Your tax dollars should be used for those items essential to national defense. Electric Service NOW is ample and sufficient to meet the emergency without government subsidies or expenditure of tax money for this purpose.

good in grammar school.

R. A. Dean was a very bad boy. Why, once he actually ran away from school to keep from getting a "licking" My, how people change!

Odean Murphree always loved to blow whistles. One day in school a boy's whistle became too great an urge for her so she blew it. Confidently, she took the whistle to the desk and blushed all the way back to her seat.

J. C. Bledsoe was mean at a lot of things but one thing he got "beat half to death" for was "simply tying another boy's feet to the desk. Some peoples' children!

Bernice Beard says practically nothing happened to her except she got slapped for talking. Really, I think that is enough!

Glen D. Adkins, little but mighty would pick a fight with all the big bullies and come out with the bruises and black eyes. I'll bet he was grinning too.

R. B. Boil had a fight with Tommy Hill in the first grade but he just can't remember why. Now it couldn't have been over a girl, could it, R. B.?

Tommy Hill is following through to the end. In grammar school he tried to kiss all the little girls. Once a kid always a kid!

Helen Barnes used to make paper rings. Now, wasn't that a queer hobby?

Joyce Hudson has always had a fancy for Harold. Why she used to wait and walk home with him from school. Hmm sounds bad.

Marguerite Nobles has carried the habit of slapping boys since Tommy Hill tried to kiss her on the merry-go-round in the first grade.

Billions of barrels of Texas oil reserves mean money in the bank for you as a Texan.

On constant deposit in underground vaults, they assure continued wages for Texas workers, lease and royalty payments for Texas farmers and ranchers, and tax revenues for our State and local governments.

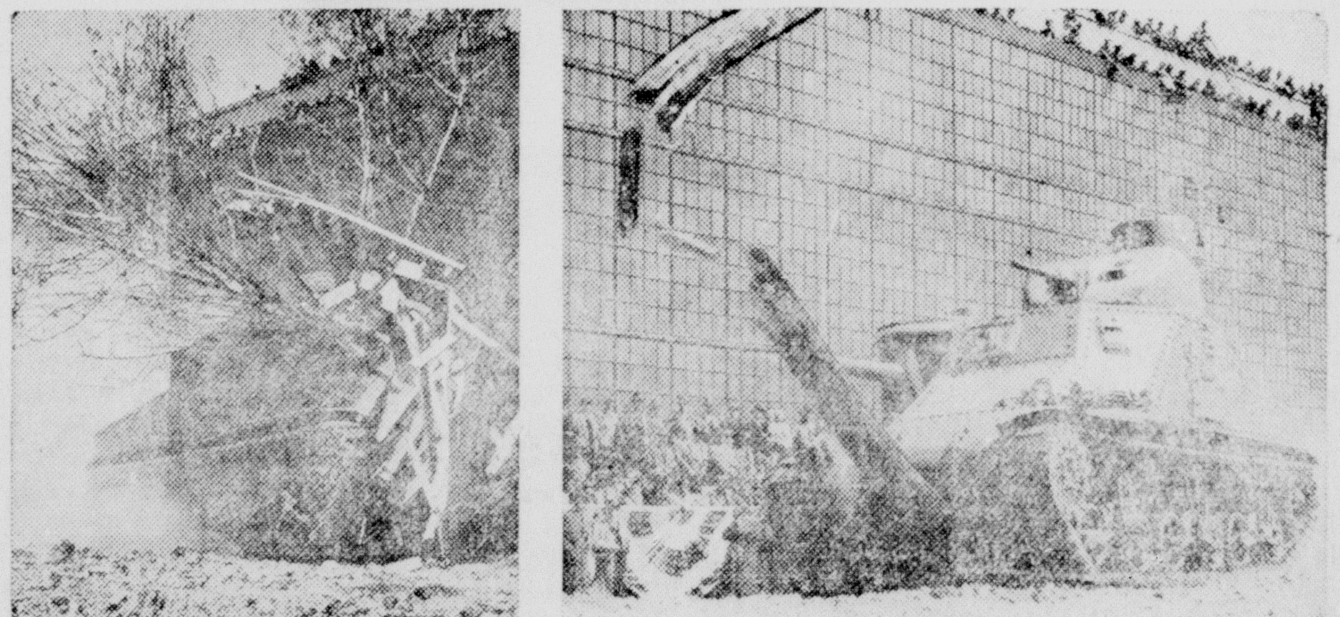

Nearly 11 billion barrels of known oil reserves are on tap in 161 counties of our State. Texas oil men are now searching for new fields in 90 additional counties. They discovered last year almost three times as much oil as they produced.

These oil reserves can be cashed only through their production and processing by Texas workers.

As a means of safeguarding this backlog of economic security, you as a Texas citizen can and should expect:

(a) Sound conservation practices, (b) A reasonable taxing policy by State and local governments to permit healthy development without loss of employment through abandonment of properties, (c) Increased use of this great fuel source through creation of new Texas industries.

These oil reserves provide security for you and every other Texan

Shown here in action is the world's toughest tank being dramatically tested before delivery to the U. S. Army. Called by military experts the "world's deadliest weapon of its kind", with firing power heavier and usefulness greater than the German tanks in Flanders and Greece, this very tank pictured above is the first 28-tonner completed in the U. S., with regulation armor-plate and guns, and ready for front line action. With K. T. Keller (right) President, Chrysler Corporation, which made this first tank in its new $20,000,000 arsenal near Detroit, and Major General Charles M. Wesson, Chief of Ordnance, U. S. Army, looking on, this tank, the first of hundreds to come (1) splashed through a deep stream, (2) fired its six guns, including 75mm. and 37mm. cannons, intermittently, (3) smashed through a house, and (4) at 25 miles per hour, snapped off telephone poles as if they were match sticks.

POT SHOTS FROM McCAULEY

BY GEO. DARDEN

The McCauley home demonstration club met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Miers Wednesday night. All of the club ladies brought pies and we can truthfully say they were delicious. Six tables of forty-two players were going throughout the evening. Mrs. Happy McHone and Geo. Darden were winners in the forty-two tournament and received prizes, and the prizes were two lovely home-made pies. Those enjoying the party were: Mrs. Luther Maberry and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Fancher, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Maberry, Miss Mamie Carroll Smith, Miss Jewell Hipp, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Miers, Mr. and Mrs. Happy McHone, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Eivens, J. I. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Darden and children, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Waldrop, Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Dick and C. E. Dick, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Jim Jackson, Mrs. Fred Hemp-hill, Mrs. Horace Barton and son, Marney Ray, and Mrs. Della Fancher.

Mr. and Mrs. George Martin are visiting the Wiley Martins in Abilene for a week.

Oil excitement in McCauley is running high, and it looks as if we are going to get a number of wells started right away.

Mrs. N. D. Miers, Mrs. C. P. Yates and Mrs. Geo. Martin attended an Eastern Star meeting in Stamford last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Humphries and Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Miers were shopping in Abilene last Thursday.

Today, Friday, it is pouring down rain and we still think that any part of West Texas would be an ideal location for a submarine base. (You see this letter is a week ahead).

The ladies of the Baptist church honored the McCauley High school seniors with a luncheon Friday at noon in the church. Fifteen seniors, Supt. H. P. Powers, teacher Mr. Hill, along with a few invited guests enjoyed the following program: Invocation, Rev. Ottinger; Welcome, Mrs. Roy Hennington; Response, Mr. Hill; Introduction of Seniors, Louise Berry; Our Seniors and the Future of our State, Supt. Powers; Solo, Tillman Henson; Address, Texas Our Texas, by Rev. C. E. Dick.

From reliable sources, we learn that Camp Berkeley is to be made a permanent camp, or until we no longer have any need for the huge national defense program, and it is reported that two million dollars is to be added to the camp beginning at an early date.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Boyd, daughter and son spent the week end in Stephenville, visiting their son Buddy who is a student in John Tarleton College.

Billie Pickron and James Parker who are in the air corps and stationed at San Antonio, were week end visitors in the home of their parents.

Stanley Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Jackson, was home over the week end. Stanley is attending a business college in Abilene.

Walter Cypert was home over the week end. Walter is a student at Abilene Christian College.

Verna Lee Wishert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Wishert, underwent a serious operation at a Stamford hospital last Saturday. Our last report was that her condition is still serious.

This scribe and Johnnie James Maberry take off for Fort Worth tomorrow, Monday the 4th, where we hope to go to work on the bomber plant, so next week we may have a few news items from Cow Town. However, we have arranged to get the local news from the old home town, so a little Duke's Mixture won't hurt.

O-O-O-O

Politics is in the air again. Hal Collins, the medicine man, is running around over Texas and giving away mattresses and trying to get lined up to run for the senate—and about the only platform that he can muster is Crazy Crystals and a few bed mattresses. Wouldn't it be a fine come off for Texas to send a man like Collins to the United States, only to try to fill the place of the beloved Morris Sheppard? Hal may have a lot of money and a few boxes of laxative and the blessing of the Governor, but still that doesn't qualify him for a job as U. S. Senator. It's a mortal cinch that if he runs, then the governor won't run, and vice versa. No doubt but there will be some good timber out for the job that Mr. Sheppard so successfully filled and on the other hand there will be fellows who have a good string band and one or two black face comedians and a lot of baloney who want the job. Martin Dies, Gerald Mann and Wright Patman are all good sound Democrats and either would make a good Senator and why should we fall for a man who is still looking for the fountain of youth and besides that, a crazy crystal salesman? Well, maybe Hal will decide that he had better stay out of the race and then we won't have to listen to the pleas and the sobs of a man who will likely work on the sympathy of some by asking the voters to pray over the situation.

A DARDEN-O-GRAM

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Spaulding and sons, Rodney and Bobby, of Norman, Okla., came Saturday to visit Mrs. Spaulding's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Rountree and family. Mr. Spaulding returned home Sunday and Mrs. Spaulding and sons remained for a longer visit. They were joined here for a week end visit by Mr. Spaulding's son, Private Lee Spaulding of Camp Berkeley.

The Herald has a request from B. B. Phillips at Coahoma, Texas, saying that since they have moved from Hamlin, they must have the Herald each week to keep up with the folks. Thank you, B. B. Hope all the news will be good news.

OPENS CAMPAIGN FOR SENATE

Congressman Lyndon Johnson

Austin, May 5—With a rousing campaign opening speech behind him, energetic, fast-moving Cong. Lyndon Johnson, this week had hit the campaign trail full blast with a whirlwind tour of the state to meet supporters and campaign workers.

Johnson opened his campaign Saturday night at San Marcos before a crowd of thousands that time after time roared full-throated approval of his firm stand for unity of all Americans behind President Roosevelt in the current grave international crisis.

From every section of the state to his opening came friends—new ones and old ones—to San Marcos where in his college days Johnson worked at jobs from janitor to secretary to the college president to pay for his education.

Among them was Federal Judge James V. Allred, former governor and old friend of Johnson, and Mrs. Allred, once his classmate.

Speakers from the five major sections of Texas bespoke the support of their areas for Johnson and their faith that his experience and dependability in the national congress would carry him to victory.

They were Dr. J. T. Harrington of Waco, chairman of the board of Baylor University and noted Texas physician; Mike Anglin of Longview, East Texas attorney; Frank Wilson of Dallas; Lloyd Croslin of Lubbock, and County Judge Roy Hofheinz of Harris County, who also acted as master of ceremonies.

From the piles of telegrams pledging Johnson support were ones from Clara Driscoll, national democratic committeewoman, and Myron G. Blaylock, national democratic committeeman from Texas.

Johnson, who announced his candidacy from the White House steps with the endorsement of President

Chain Store Tax Will Likely Be Repealed

Mineral Wells, Texas—May 5—Texas' tax on chain stores has materially added to the rising cost of living, the Texas Real Estate Association said in a resolution sent this week to the state legislature.

The association urged the legislature to repeal the tax.

The tax, "a punitive tax, planned so as to put the chain stores out of business, has entirely failed of its purpose," the real estate association said in a resolution adopted at its convention here on Saturday, May 3rd.

On the contrary, the resolution asserted, the law "has proved to be but an added burden to the people of Texas, adding materially to already higher and constantly increasing costs of living and the heavy tax burden of the ultimate consumer."

The association also said that the tax, which places special levies of as much as $750 a store on companies maintaining more than fifty stores in Texas, has proved to be a detriment to real estate.

A bill to repeal the chain store tax is now before the Texas House of Representatives, and the House committee on revenue and taxation has recommended that it be passed.

no one is hungry and none is ill-clothed," he declared.

"We want to see a Texas where every farm home is electrified where farm power rates are reduced twenty-five per cent; where the farmer's interest rate is three per cent. An agricultural and industrial Texas must prosper because we have rid ourselves of discriminatory freight rates, rates strangling our Southland. I want full parity price for our farmers.

"Old pioneer Texans built this state. They gave their lives, their sweat, their tears—even their blood—to make it the greatest state in the Union. I am in favor of a nation-wide old-age pension system, beginning at sixty instead of sixty-five, paying enough so our senior citizens can live decently, by American standards."

The rising young statesman made completely plain his stand upon both the capital and the labor issue in the current crisis.

Firmly and without equivocation he declared that there must be no more strikes by minority groups and cliques on either side during the danger period.

"It has been said the right to strike, being a part of our peace-time social advancement may, under no circumstances, be questioned by any citizen. As one citizen, I do question the right in 1941 of unrestricted license for capital, government, labor or farmer, to strike.

"All for one and one for all once rallied Thirteen States fighting for freedom.

Moving to Texas and economic problems, Johnson made plain his views.

"We want to see a Texas where

Johnson strongly opposed socialized medicine, and favored opportunity for every Texas boy and girl rich or poor to go to school, to work for an education. "I want jobs for them when they are ready for them." He told, too, of his work in handling veterans cases.

Johnson struck hard at subversive influences.

Best of management brains in defense positions was strongly urged by Johnson in recommending they be drafted by the nation.

He also urged that the distribution of defense work to a few firms be stopped and that it be spread into firms all over the country to make surer and faster.

Johnson, who has carried to success, the L. C. R. A. program of developing the Colorado river in Texas as pledged his aid to helping other water conservation projects in the state in a like manner.

He likewise declared his promise to stand for retention of the community property laws.

Pointing to the importance of religious freedom, Johnson pledged his efforts against any undermining of religion or of persecution of any creed.

Likewise, he recognized the problems of the young men of the state drafted into army service, pledging that they should have the best of equipment and of war materials and that the problem of getting them jobs on their return to private life would be met.

Pleading for all-out support of the President in Texas, Johnson urged his listeners to join him in his battle for the senate and for unity of the country behind Roosevelt's leadership.
